

BOSWORTH PAPERS, INC.

Dear Neighbors and Friends,

Friday evening, September 12, 2008, Hurricane Ike hit the Texas Gulf Coast with terrific force, leaving behind a path of devastation and destruction. Many of us have been affected by this event --- our customers, our employees, and our friends.

Since 1924, Bosworth Papers has weathered many a storm, and we will weather Hurricane Ike as well.

At our main Houston location, we enacted our Emergency Plan, and Bosworth Papers, Inc was open for business on Monday, September 15, 2008. Full power was restored to our facility on Sunday September 21st, and we are open regular business hours. We are here to serve you.

Currently our website and email operations are working around the clock for our customers that would like to place orders for either Fine Paper or Office and Technology Products at www.bosworthpapers.com.

As our Houston Bosworth Paper Chase Store locations regained power, they reopened as well. Currently, all 4 of our locations are open in Houston and ready to serve you. Our offices in San Antonio and Austin were not affected by the storm, and are open regular business hours.

We would like to thank all of our employees for their commitment and dedication to serving our customers as we continue the rebuilding process.

With over 40,000 items in stock for next day delivery, Bosworth Papers and Bosworth Office and Technology Products stand by ready to assist our customers recover from this storm. You have been there for us for over 80 years, and we are committed to being here for you.

Thanks in advance for all your support.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Joe Jordan", written in a cursive style.

Joseph T Jordan
President